LE MOURE ROUGE

CANNES

The menu, created by the Chef and his team, is based on fresh, seasonal produce.

All our dishes are homemade

The Moure Rouge Restaurant is an unavoidable area in the History of Cannes.

At its origin it belonged to the Bordi family.

During World War II the establishment was a grocery store and a fueling station.

A few years later, this place was transformed into a restaurant and bar headed by the mother and grand mother of the family.

Located on the road to Golfe Juan, the Moure Rouge found success.

Indeed, it is here that many artists such as Edith Piaf and others came to restore themselves after lavish galas held at the Palm Beach Casino.

Claude Bordi, the grandson took over the family business in 1997. This institution was then acquired by Brice Courtade in June 2021.

Welcome to the Moure Rouge, our provincial island with a unique view of the Sainte-Marguerite island and the Royal Fort, famous residency of the Iron Mask...
